

Yenworthy

An early start on a beautiful sunny morning, with teachers, parents and siblings to wave us on our way. We were all pleased to meet our new friends from Horspath and four hours later, to oohs and aahs and gasps at the glorious views, we finally arrived at Yenworthy. It's been action-packed since then, with bed-making (an activity in itself!), unpacking, ropes courses, a delicious warming dinner and a moonlit walk on the moor.

The children agreed they would quite happily have slept up there in the heather but we decided to bring them back to hot chocolate and a warm bed!

All tucked up now, and raring for all that tomorrow brings!
